OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 12 July 1978

1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and set up the briefing he had previously requested on covert action for Monday, 17 July, at 2:00 p.m. [REDACTED] both of CA/DDO, and Don Gregg, C/PCS/LOC, will attend.

2. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Ed Levine, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, on the secure line. Levine gave me a list of issues the Committee would like addressed in the presentation on the "spy war" before the full Committee. The date for the presentation is unclear. Levine also asked me two questions about the [REDACTED] case.

3. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Leonard Weiss, Staff Director, Senate Governmental Affairs Subcommittee on Energy, Nuclear Proliferation and Federal Services, to inform him we could find no indication that there was any truth to the story in the New York Times magazine that former counter-intelligence staff director James Angleton had passed nuclear technology to the Israelis. I told Weiss that this was based on two factors. First, I had contacted all appropriate people here and no one had any knowledge of this and second, Angleton would have had no access to this information as chief of counterintelligence staff. Weiss seemed somewhat skeptical but accepted this response. I also offered Weiss a briefing on a late 1950s accident at a Soviet nuclear installation. The briefing had been requested some months ago but was held up until Weiss could get the appropriate clearances, which he now has. Weiss said he would see if Senator John Glenn (D., Ohio) wanted to be briefed on this subject and would get back to me.

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, requesting a change in the briefing of the Committee on the "spy war" from 13 July to 14 July.

1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Spoke with Lot Cooke, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and informed him that the Office of Security had agreed to assist the Committee in destruction of MKULTRA files previously provided the Committee by the Agency. Cooke told me that Bill Miller, Committee Staff Director, had changed his mind and did not now want the documents destroyed and would have them stored in the Committee's storage area at the National Archives.

2. [REDACTED] LIAISON Spoke with Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who requested a meeting with DDO representatives regarding covert action to talk about the Committee's follow-up questions from the 29 June briefing. Childs specifically asked that we bring the perspectives and Directorate of Operations notices that had been promised to the Committee to this meeting. I told him the notices had already been delivered.

3. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Catherine Essoyan, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and confirmed the meeting for tomorrow for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] both of DDO, with Essoyan, Stan Taylor and Abram Shulsky, also of the Committee staff, on terrorism.

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Audrey Hatry, Clerk, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, asking whether decisions had been made regarding supplying Agency unclassified publications to all 100 Senators rather than 43 as the Agency had initially desired. I told Hatry the sentiment was to stay with 43 for now with the caveat that if additional Senators requested to be put on distribution, we would be happy to do so. I gave her the rationale for this and she seemed satisfied.
